

Find Your Psychic Style

This is a quick test so help you discover your psychic style. Try to go with your first impulses as these are often more accurate.

Do you operate on touch, sight, sound, smell or feeling? Perhaps you can operate on one or two levels at different times. Your answers will help you heighten your awareness and hone your intuition. You can call on the levels that you are most comfortable with when trying to "tune in" to someone or something, or perhaps even to yourself.

Mostly A's:

The sensitive soul – you get a shiver when you feel something unseen has brushed past you. You can tune in to spirit guides and communicate with them. Often you can physically feel a person or spirit's presence around you. This opens you up to the wisdom of the spirit world that can enlighten you with predictions. You are able to talk about how things feel to you and perhaps other people if you can tune in to them well.

Mostly B's:

The true clairvoyant – the world "clairvoyant" which was Greek means to "see" "clearly". You have a portable television in your subconscious that you can tune on and off. You can see things that are not clearly visible because what you are seeing is deep in the inner pockets of your mind. There are things you just know because you have "seen" them in your mind's eye. In dreams, you can see what your wakeful mind has missed because it may just have been too busy!

Mostly C's:

The scent magnet – smell is very important to you. It invokes memories, feelings, experiences and your goddess within. You are often contacted by the spirit world through memorable scents or even just the memory of the scent that is locked in your psyche. A person's smell makes you have certain feelings towards them. Have you found that "sniffing" someone out first has worked for you? The nose knows!

Mostly D's:

The clairaudient – have you ever been woken up by a voice calling your name only to find darkness around you? You may have experienced actually hearing voices and no, you're not going crazy. Clairaudients can tune in to the higher vibrations of the spirit world. These gifted people can work as mediums, communicating with souls departed as they can hear their voices from the spirit world. You walk around with your antenna up, tuned in to the spirit world.

Mostly E's:

The clairsentient – if you closed your eyes at the cinema, you can "feel" the energy of the person next to you. You are tuned in to the vibrations emanated from people and spirit. You are one of the lucky ones who can really feel what it is like to be in someone else's shoes. The solar plexus can be very developed in you so that you get hunches, you feel things are going to happen before they do. There is never a logical explanation for a feeling to a clairsentient. There is just a knowing.
