Celebrate Goddess!

This is a time of celebration, when the year is coming to an end and a new one is about to start. It's a time when a Goddess can ask herself, what is there to celebrate about? Well, that depends... if you have made the most of the past year and brought out your divine qualities when you needed them, then you can celebrate. If you know what you want for the coming year, then you too can celebrate.

Every day brings a new opportunity to bring out our best. We can feel like Goddesses when we are doing what we love doing well. We bloom and feel fully alive when we are the Goddesses we were born to be. It's not always easy to find out who we were born to be, but the journey can be a divine experience in it's own.

During this time of celebration, remember to pamper yourself. Do something for yourself where you can spend the time focusing on where you have come from and where you are going. Have a massage and while you are enjoying the release of aches and toxins in your body, contemplate the year to come and the many ways in which you can engage your Goddess within.
