The Universe will help you!

This year is almost over Goddess.... and here you are again buying presents, going to parties and having a good time...or perhaps you are not looking forward to a time of the year that always leaves you over-weight, over-emotional and over-drawn. Is it all the same old stuff that comes up every year? What makes this year special?

The good news for Goddesses this year is that the Universe is coming to the party. Astrologers have recently been excited about the planetary formations that they say will bring a heightened awareness to all of humanity. What this means is that the Universe is lending a helping hand if we want to grow and change. Any changes we need to make now will happen smoothly and with a sense of ease.

Also, the month of Sagittarius has been known to be the lucky month (just think of your lucky Sagittarian friends!) because it is the time of year when humanity receives heavenly blessings in abundance. The next few weeks will be filled with opportunities for us to find fulfilment as we allow these blessings to become a part of our lives. If we are aware of this opportunity, then we can make the most of it.

So Goddess... what are you waiting for? The next couple of weeks will be filled with wish-fulfilling magic from the Universe. Open yourself up and receive the gifts that are out there. Make your wishes and believe that they will come true. Call on the Universe to help you reach your goals... and then you will have a Happy New Year!

★ Goddess Tips

Hot summer days can be hard on a Goddess' feet. Walking barefoot on the beach is a great way to exfoliate feet as the marine extracts and minerals in the seawater help soothe and smooth the skin. It's also relaxing and rejuvenating. Some people even believe that walking barefoot by the water's edge heightens the intuition.

If you can't get to the beach, here's a Goddess remedy you can try at home. Mix half a cup of beach sand (pet stores have them), one tablespoon of sea salt and half a cup of olive oil in a bowl. Immerse your feet in the mixture and gently massage your feet and legs. Rinse the sand off with cool water and feel how smooth your feet have become. Now you can slip on those strappy sandals and feel like a real Summer Goddess!
