Love Yourself Goddess!

We're often told to love ourselves. Fine, but what does that really mean? The media everywhere tells us to love ourselves by purchasing things that make us feel loved or complete. Do we really feel loved when we acquire things? Do they not further disconnect us from our true Selves by putting too much emphasis on our bodies?

Our true Self goes beyond our bodies. Our minds and our spirits are even more important parts of ourselves that we need to love. The mind and spirit are what keep our bodies alive, they set us apart from all other beings on earth. These are the parts of our beings that outlast what the eye can see.

Goddess look at yourself and appreciate who you are beyond what you see. Appreciate your strengths and weaknesses, accept who you are and continue on the path of educating yourself and learning how to be a better you. There are therapists out there who can help you learn and grow. Have a reiki session to clear your energy or an angel card reading to guide you down your path. This is how you love yourself: by touching every part of the beautiful Goddess that you are.

NEW Clairvoyant Therapy

Flora Goddess Readings:

We all love flowers. Here's a new therapy that you are sure to enjoy. Pick a flower from our bouquet and put it in a paper bag that we provide. A single flower that we randomly pick from a bouquet can reveal much about us. Hold on to your bag until your therapy session.

Our therapist will have a private session with you, where she will open your bag and give you a reading from the flower you chose. Your energies harmonise with the flower, making the Flora Goddess Reading very powerful.

Book a party for 6 or more and each of you will receive a free 5-minute Flora Goddess Reading. Offer available until 30th June 2004.
